

Not all of our surveillance equipment is electronic.

Search dogs can detect drugs, firearms and explosives. We know some people simply don't like dogs, but others have less innocent reasons to be worried – so nervous faces can be revealing.

If you see any suspicious behaviour, please contact the security control room.

Together, we've got it covered.