

Effective communication during a terrorist attack will save lives

Is your site ready?

Review your communications plan for responding to a terrorist incident

Have you carefully selected communications technology?

Have you got a communications plan that helps mitigate the risk?

Are your staff well trained and practiced?

Have you got tried and tested policies and procedures?

Identifying communications paths and developing an incident communications plan

Do you have a checklist?

Checklist

Why

Why do you want to communicate?

How are you going to do it

How

Who

Who do you want to communicate with?

Where are the people you want to communicate with?

Where

What

What needs to be communicated as a priority?

