

Marauding Terrorist Attacks

Simple Measures Save Lives Are You Ready?

Marauding Terrorist Attacks (MTA) are fast moving violent incidents, where assailants move through a location aiming to harm as many people as possible. They may use knives, guns, vehicles, fire and/or explosives. Most deaths occur within the first few minutes. If an attack is at or near to your premises your organisation's can save lives.

What can you do?

- Use the MTA Guidance to guide you. Know how to apply RUN HIDE TELL within your organisation
- Appoint someone to develop a plan, covering all business areas
- Develop your responses (see technical supplements below)
- Co-ordinate your responses with landlords & neighbours
- Train your staff and rehearse
- Plan to recover

Responding to an attack, every second counts.

Further Information – 3 Tiers of Guidance

- 1 "Busy Reader Guide", for senior managers
- "Making Your Organisation Ready" – security principles for security professionals
- Technical supplements covering critical topics

